set forth in the Second Amended Order Implementing Certain Notice and Case Management Procedures entered June 17, 2010 [Dkt. No 9635] (the “Case Management Order”) to (i) the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York; (ii) the attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors; (iii) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; (vi) all parties who have requested notice in these chapter 11 cases; and (vii) all parties who filed an objection to the Initial Motion; and it appearing that no other or further notice need be provided; and the Court having reviewed and considered the Motion and any exhibits filed in support thereof, the responses and objections thereto, and Lehman’s reply (the “Reply”) in support of the Motion; and Lehman having engaged in further negotiations and discussions with the objecting parties in an effort to resolve their objections; and Lehman having proposed to the parties that filed objections to the Motion to resolve these objections by establishing (i) certain use and confidentiality procedures to apply to the use of the Derivatives Questionnaires (the “Confidentiality Procedures”; parties that agree to the Confidentiality Procedures are hereinafter referred to as the “Confidentiality Parties”) as one alternative to resolve the objections to the Motion, and, (ii) as a second alternative, certain procedures for parties that are willing to redact their Derivatives Questionnaires (the “Redacting Parties”<sup>1</sup>; together with the Confidentiality Parties, the “Settling Parties”), to redact certain information contained in their Derivatives Questionnaires, subject to the following terms and conditions (the “Redaction Procedures”):

(a) Redacting Parties are authorized to and will be afforded the opportunity during the thirty (30) day period following entry of this order (the “Redaction Period”) to redact their respective Derivatives Questionnaires for the sole purpose of removing (i) information concerning the identity of the Redacting Party, including the name of the party that filed the Derivatives Questionnaire, of any of its current or former affiliates, clients and customers, of any current or former employee of any of the foregoing, and any other non-substantive identifying information that would, with the application of minimal effort, permit someone to identify the Redacting Party; (ii) the entirety of any settlement/termination agreements; and (iii) information concerning the identity of current or former employees of third-party entities who are identified in the counterparty's Derivatives Questionnaire. To facilitate the redaction process, at the direction of Lehman, Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC ("Epiq") will upload electronic copies of each Redacting Party's Derivatives Questionnaire to a virtual data room ("VDR"). Epiq and/or Lehman will provide each Redacting Party a link to access the VDR, along with login information specific to the Redacting Party so that the Redacting Party may access only those the folders containing its Derivatives Questionnaire(s). The Redacting Party will then be able to download copies of its Derivatives Questionnaire(s), redact them in accordance with the Redaction Procedures, and upload the redacted Derivatives Questionnaire(s) to the appropriate VDR folder. The Redacting Party or its representative shall notify Epiq when the redaction process has been completed;

(b) other than as set forth in the forgoing paragraph (a), the Derivatives Questionnaires may not be redacted, including but not limited to redaction of any information in the Derivatives Questionnaires concerning transaction data and details, and valuation information;

(c) as part of the redaction process, Lehman shall assign to each Redacting Party an industry designation ("Industry Designation") using one of the designations set forth on Exhibit A to this Order, as well as a corresponding, confidential three-letter industry code ("Industry Code"), and each Redacting Party will be required to confirm the Industry Designation assigned by Lehman, or provide an accurate Industry Designation for itself if the Industry Designation assigned by Lehman is inaccurate;

(d) any Redacting Party that fails to confirm a correct Industry Designation shall not be entitled to redact its Derivatives Questionnaire(s);

(e) Lehman may use the redacted Derivatives Questionnaires as discovery materials, and produce them to counterparties, in connection with litigation, mediation, arbitration, negotiation, and settlement (each herein a "Proceeding") under general protective orders or agreements that prohibit the receiving parties from using the materials outside the Proceeding ("Receiving Parties");

(f) to facilitate use of redacted Derivatives Questionnaires, each Redacting Party shall be required to add the appropriate Industry Code to the top right corner of the first page of each redacted Derivatives Questionnaire, in fourteen-point Times Roman bold typeface, as follows:

Industry Code: [XYZ];

(g) to protect the anonymity of the parties that submit redacted Derivatives Questionnaires, while preserving the utility of the Industry Designations, Lehman will maintain a confidential key (the “Key”) that identifies what Industry Designation corresponds to a particular Industry Code;

(h) Lehman may provide a copy of the Key to Receiving Parties, solely for use in connection with a Proceeding, under general protective orders or agreements that prohibit the Receiving Parties from using the materials outside the Proceeding. Lehman or any Receiving Party may file the Key (or any portion thereof) under seal if necessary in connection with any Proceeding;

(i) Lehman may also disclose to Lehman entities under non-LBHI administration (the “Non-LBHI Entities”) the redacted Derivatives Questionnaire and the Key for the Non-LBHI Entities to use in the litigation, mediation, arbitration, negotiation, and settlement of claims only under general protective orders or agreements that prohibit the Non-LBHI Entities from using the materials outside the Proceeding so long as the Non-LBHI Entities agree in writing to abide by same procedures set forth for Lehman’s use and disclosure in (e) and (h) above;

(j) Lehman may also disclose to only those Non-LBHI Entities that have entered into the written agreement described in paragraph (i) above the actual identity of the Redacting Party who submitted a Derivatives Questionnaire, for them to use in the litigation, mediation, arbitration, negotiation, and settlement of claims only under general protective orders or agreements that prohibit the Non-LBHI Entities from using the information outside the Proceeding. The identity of that Redacting Party may be disclosed by the Non-LBHI Entities to others in connection with the Proceeding, including but not limited to parties, attorneys, mediators, arbitrators, courts of relevant jurisdiction and any similar entity or authority, only to identify the Default Rate asserted by the Redacting Party with respect to terminated ISDA-based transactions (including any supporting materials used in the calculation of the Default Rate), and the source of that Default Rate;

(k) any Redacting Party that fails to submit to Lehman its Derivatives Questionnaire(s), redacted as described above, and proper Industry Designation within the Redaction Period, shall be deemed to have consented to the production and disclosure of its original, unredacted Derivatives Questionnaire(s), at which point Lehman may use and produce the relevant Derivatives Questionnaire(s) as discovery materials in connection with any Proceeding;

and the Court having determined that as to the Redacting Parties, the Redaction Procedures represent a fair and reasonable compromise that is in the best interests of Lehman and the Redacting Parties; it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion is granted on the terms and conditions set forth herein, including that the Redaction Procedures are hereby approved for the Redacting Parties, and all objections to the Motion are hereby overruled; and it is further

ORDERED that nothing herein shall modify the relief granted by the Initial Order as to the Non-Objecting Parties; and it is further

ORDERED that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bar Date Order, Lehman is authorized to use, produce and share the redacted Derivatives Questionnaires of the Redacting Parties as discovery materials on the terms and conditions set forth herein, and it is further

ORDERED that this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry; and it is further

ORDERED that this Order is without prejudice to the rights of the claimants in litigation currently pending with Lehman to seek additional discovery from Lehman; and it is further ORDERED that this Court retains jurisdiction to interpret, implement, and enforce the provisions of this Order.
